

Parents Right-to-Know

1. Parents have the right to request information regarding the professional qualifications of each student's classroom teachers. They may contact the building principal for this information.

If you request this information the district will provide the following:

- if the teacher has met the state licensing requirements for the grade level and subjects taught
- if state licensing requirements have been waived on a temporary basis
- the type of college degree major of the teacher and field of discipline for any graduate degree or certificate
- if your child is receiving Title 1 services from paraprofessionals and if so, his/her qualifications

2. Parents will receive notice if their child is taught by a teacher, for four or more consecutive weeks, who is not highly qualified.

3. Parents will be provided information on the level of achievement of their child on each of the state academic achievement assessments.

Title 1 Schools

The following Title 1 schools have developed schoolwide plans which are reviewed annually:

- Buff Intermediate
- Madras Primary
- Metolius Elementary
- Warm Springs Elementary
- Jefferson County Middle School

Parent Involvement

1. Jefferson County School District Parent Involvement Policy:

- District Policy IGBC-Title I Parent Involvement
- District Policy IGBC-AR Parent Involvement in Title I

Jefferson County School District Parent Involvement Plan:

- English
- Spanish

The Parent Involvement Policy is developed and reviewed by the school board. The Parent Involvement Plan is reviewed annually by community groups. Parents may also provide feedback on this plan to Sandy Loomis at 541-475-6192 or sloomis@509j.net.

2. Every Title 1 school has a Parent Involvement Plan which is reviewed annually at a Site Council meeting. Copies of the building plan are included in a school newsletter once a year. Parents may contact the building principal with feedback.

3. Every Title 1 school holds an annual meeting to inform parents of their school's participation in Title 1 and to explain Title 1 requirements and the right of parents to be involved. Parents may contact the school's principal for the annual meeting date.
